

THE POWER OF INCLUSIVE COMMUNITIES

Katie Oswald

LIFE FROM AN AUTISTIC PERSPECTIVE

Exclusion from society

- Wrong planet!
- Lack of acceptance of autistic people
- Ableism
- Negative impacts of exclusion

Impacts of Exclusion

- Poor access to education
- High unemployment and risk of homelessness
- Challenges establishing and maintaining relationships/social safety net
- Challenges navigating services
- Inability to contribute to society
- Poor mental and physical health outcomes

INCLUSION AS PREVENTION

MICRO LEVEL: PEER GROUPS

MACRO LEVEL: SOCIETY

RETHINKING BARRIERS

NOT ALL
BARRIERS ARE PHYSICAL

REMOVING BARRIERS

Inclusion in different settings

- Inclusion is a way of being that each of us as an individual can choose to embrace
- Inclusion strategies can work in
 - Office/workplaces
 - School
 - Businesses
 - Church
 - Community gathering places
 - In your home

FULL SPECTRUM AGENCY
for AUTISTIC ADULTS

VISION

- A world where autistic people of all backgrounds and abilities are accepted and included as valued members of society and our respective communities.

MISSION

- Full Spectrum Agency for Autistic Adults exists to support and foster independence and build community for autistic adults.

CONTACT

- katie@FullSpectrumASD.org
- www.FullSpectrumASD.org
- <https://www.meetup.com/full-spectrum-agency-autistic-adults/>

QUESTIONS